Carefully cleaned lamb casings are stuffed with chickpeas, minced meat and rice. Served with a special sauce.

In our country, we often come across that is made with cracked rice and bulgur. We even put chickpeas and tail fat in it. In this menu, we wanted to make Mumbar (stuffed lamb casings), which we cook with its own juice and filled with rice and minced meat, just like my mother used to make for us at home in the evenings..

We have been presenting you the products since 2007 under the brand name of Antakya Bakkali, that we acquire from our village's labourer women and from the local producers of Hatay.

We would like to state that you support all the labourer women of Hatay, small producers of the region and various local producers by buying our products from our shelves in our restaurant or from our website; in order to support the sustainability of the life in Hatay and to help to the region recover from the natural disaster that had occurred.

I would like to thank you in behalf of my family and team for your ongoing support to the local producers.
